Financial:

Alison presented her report drawing attention to the alterations to the club's insurance due to changes implemented by the Insurers. It was decided to obtain a quote to extend the categories now no longer part of the substantive policy, in particular Tsunami and water damage. Moved Bridget, seconded by Gil that it be received. Carried.

General:

- 1 Mike reported that the documentation for the renewal of the club's lease was now with the Auckland Council for their answer in due course.
- 2 In response to a query from Jenny Robinson it was confirmed that those players who wished to attend the Tuesday evening sessions must be members of the club.
- 3 An email was received from Bronwyn Walker on behalf of other keen bridge players requesting use of the club's facilities on Saturday mornings. After discussion it was decided that no alterations to the club's current year's programme would be made at this stage of the year. The matter could be re-visited in due course.

- 4 The committee received a suggestion from Kaz Creaghan that consideration be given to curtailing the playing time on Thursday evenings. After considering options (of no supper, fewer boards, cut off at 10pm ) it was decided that this would best be handled by a show of hands vote by the Thursday night players themselves
- 5 40th Anniversary celebrations. Ron presented his very comprehensive agenda for the function. At this stage 82 member had accepted. Entry would be restricted to members only and entry cards would be issued. The caterers, menu and entertainment have been confirmed. Committee members were asked to help set the room up the day before.
- 6 In response to a question from Bridget, Eileen clarified the allocations of prizes for the recent tournament.

There being no further business, the meeting was declared close at 5.35pm.
The next meeting to be held on Monday 12 July 2021.

Gil Jury,
President.
