Apologies:

Nicola Timms (absent)

Minutes:

The minutes of the previous meeting having been circulated were taken as read.

Moved: Bridget seconded Cherrie, that they be approved. Carried.

Matters Arising:

Nil

Correspondence:

- 1 Letter from Jenny Robinson re alerting bids. The importance of her explanation will be included in the next Newsletter.
- 2 NZ Wide Pairs – the question of who would host the event. Orewa or Warkworth is to be held in abeyance waiting a response from the Warkworth Club.
- 3 Letter from NZB inviting a representative to join an afternoon on streaming bridge lessons. This was discussed and a decision on who to send was not finalised.

Membership:

- 1 Nothing to report

Financial:

Alison presented her report, noting that income from table money came mainly from our initial cashless deposits.

Income from room hire is higher, but may become lower. It was decided than table money from Sunday and Tuesday bridge would continue to be paid in cash.

Alison will prepare a report, to be circulated before the next meeting providing a budget re table money and subscriptions.

Moved: Judith, seconded Eileen that the report be approved. Carried.

General:

- 1 Alison questioned the need for a joining fee for new members. It was decided to do away with joining fees.
- 2 Sandra expressed her concern that both dealing machines required servicing. It was decided to have the old one done immediately, before the new.
- 3 The Club's 3A/5B Tournament will be held on 30th October with players asked to enter online.
- 4 A discussion was held around the need to share the work load within the committee, and the possibility of forming sub-committees.
- 5 Cherrie was nominated as Secretary for next year.
- 6 As a condition of the new lease a June series will be renamed Matariki Tournament next year.

There being no further business, the meeting was declared closed at 5.20 PM.
