XG Ratings 1 May 2023

Handicaps are updated for sessions results (with your partners) during the previous month.

With the XG rating system the players (with their partners) who generally score in the top half of the sessions will have a negative handicap and those in the lower half of sessions will have a positive handicap.

Players who are new or haven't played for some time will be allocated a default handicap (usually a 10) which will change once they start playing.

Also note those who mainly play on a Thursday night (with limited tables that generate extreme results) will have more variable handicaps.
